Email: jreed2@lsu.edu
Office Hours: Tuesday 1:30- 3:30 and Thursday 1:30- 2:30

Required Materials: SD Memory card

Text: Valenzano, et. al. The Speaker's Primer: LSU Custom Edition. Fountainhead Press, 2018.

Course Description/ Goals:

CMST 2060 is a General Education Humanities Course designed to familiarize students with the study of public speaking. The act of public speaking is the culmination (and often the beginning) of a long process of critical dialogue between oneself, language, and the imagined responses of the audience. In other words, it takes being confident in who you are, what you want to say, how you are going to say it, who you want to say it to, and why you should say anything at all. Throughout the semester, students will be introduced to the fundamental concepts of public speaking.

As a General Education Humanities Course, CMST 2060 will enable students to demonstrate an understanding of historical, cultural, and philosophical complexity that supports sophisticated discourse.

As a result of this course, students should:

1. Understand the principles of rhetoric and effectively utilize them in crafting well researched, reasoned, and appealing speeches.
2. Choose topics for public speaking that are timely, relevant, and adaptable given varying situations in which the message may be delivered, and for different audiences.
3. Effectively and critically evaluate message/speech content and delivery, both when examining one's own work as well as that of others.
4. Understand and utilize the verbal and nonverbal elements essential for exemplary speech delivery.
5. Analyze and discuss speeches of historical, political and social significance.
6. Examine one's own biases as listeners, classroom community members, and consumers of information.

COURSE POLICIES

Student Responsibilities: Student responsibilities include punctuality, regular attendance, meeting assignment due dates, setting individual performance goals and self-evaluation. Classroom discussion will largely reference assigned text, as well as supplementary material distributed by the course instructor. Students are expected to learn through the application of classroom discussions and assigned readings. Additionally, students are also expected to develop credible research skills, as well as develop presentation skills. At all times students are required to be strong, creative, and respectful of their learning environment. Students are required to daily access LSU Moodle and LSU student email for course and instructor updates. Students are expected to complete original work always. Academic integrity is a priority set forth through the university, department, and the course instructor. Academic dishonesty (Plagiarism) is not tolerated. The LSU Code of Student Conduct defines plagiarism as “the unacknowledged inclusion, in work submitted for credit, of someone else’s words, ideas, or data” (8.1-C.6). The instructor of this course and Louisiana State University expect all work submitted in this course to be entirely the work of the individual student. Students who have committed plagiarism may receive a grade of "F" on the assignment in question and/or an “F” in the course, and the matter may be investigated for possible disciplinary actions. Additional University and College policies are detailed at <http://students.lsu.edu/saa/students/plagiarism>. Your class participation grade will be determined based on in-class discussion participation, assignments/exercises, and analysis of in-class presentations throughout the semester.

Instructor Responsibilities: In accordance with the LSU Faculty handbook the course instructor must adhere to several guidelines. The course instructor must clearly provide students with learning objectives, attend course meetings, and maintain teaching competence. At all times the instructor must maintain professional behavior and show respect to colleagues and students. The course instructor must be available to students for consultation during appropriately scheduled office hours. If a student cannot meet during the instructor’s regularly scheduled office consultation hours, it is the student’s responsibility to arrange an alternative time to meet with the course instructor. Any electronic correspondence (e-mail) transmitted from the student to the course instructor will be responded to in a timely manner that the course instructor deems appropriate (usually 48-72 hours). Students may not receive responses when pertinent information is present within the course syllabus. The course instructor is also responsible for the evaluation of student progress and individual success. This is largely done with assignment grading and feedback. Students will receive grades for major assignments within an opportune and appropriate time frame. If students have any questions about the instructor’s grading methodologies, course expectations, and/or individual success the student is strongly encouraged to consult with the course instructor.

Technology Policy: The goal of all course policies is to help create a successful course experience for you as the student; this includes your ability to learn course material and to do so in an effective classroom environment. As such, use of technology is prohibited to devices that aid in student learning. Generally, students are also not allowed to record the course instructor or other students in the course without their permission.

- Laptop computers and similar devices used for note-taking as a learning aid ARE NOT permitted in class. You should have paper and a writing utensil on all days for group activities. If there is a medical reason that dictates the use of any technological equipment, please let the course instructor know within the first two weeks of class.
- All other technology (smart phones, etc.) are NOT permitted for use during class. The first use during class will result in substantial reduction in overall course participation points (up to 20 points) with an increasing reduction in points for each use thereafter.
- In case of emergencies requiring cell phone access during the class session, you should notify your professor before class begins and attempt to sit near the entrance to the classroom.

Disabilities: The Americans with Disabilities Act and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 states: “If you have a disability that may have some impact on your work in this class and for which you may require accommodations, please see a coordinator in the Office of Disability Affairs (112 Johnston Hall) so that such accommodations can be arranged.” After you receive the accommodation letters, please meet with me to discuss the provisions of those accommodations.

Inclusivity: On a professional and personal level I affirm and emphasize my commitment to provide an educational and work environment free from student harassment and to provide a safe space allowing for the diversity of ideas and maximizes inclusivity for all. I uphold the ideal that inclusion of all ability, cultural, ethnic, gender, nationality, racial and sexual orientation identities is of high priority for our class space. Equitable access and safety for all individuals and groups is essential to an enjoyable learning experience. Therefore, I am more than willing to adjust student lectures, discussions, assignments, room accommodations, etc. to ensure that ALL students are treated with dignity. Please contact me at jreed2@lsu.edu with any pressing issues in this area.

Plagiarism: You are to assume that all assignments in this course are individual assignments unless explicit instructions are provided for a group project. Students are responsible for three types of source citations in the course including: Verbal, Parenthetical, and Works-Cited. Any student found to have turned in material not their own (either downloaded from the internet or written by another student) in part or in whole will immediately be reported to the Dean of Students. The Internet has made plagiarism very easy and very tempting. Hundreds of sites offer papers, research, writing, and editing. The ease with which such material is available over the Internet does not lessen the seriousness of claiming material from the Internet as your own. See the LSU policies on plagiarism here: <http://www.lib.lsu.edu/instruction/plagiarism2.html>. Your assignment is considered as plagiarized in part or entirely if you do any of the following:

- Submit an assignment that was written by someone other than you.
- Submit an assignment in which you use the ideas, metaphors or reasoning style of another, but do not cite that source and/or place that source in your list of references. Simply rewording a sentence does not make work your own.
- Submit an assignment in which you “cut and paste” or use the exact words of a source and you do not put the words within quotation marks, use footnotes or in-text citations, and place the source in your list of references.

Extra Credit: No extra credit assignments will be allowed.

Attendance Policy: Students are responsible for their individual success in a given course. A significant portion of that success is a result of consistent attendance and overall classroom awareness. According to University Policy 22.R04: “Class attendance is the responsibility of the student. The student is expected to attend all classes. A student who finds it necessary to miss class assumes responsibility for making up examinations, obtaining lecture notes, and otherwise compensating for what may have been missed.” Valid reasons for absences include:

1. Illness
2. Serious family emergency
3. Special curricular requirements such as judging trips or field trips
4. Court-imposed legal obligations such as subpoenas or jury duty

5. Military obligations
6. Serious weather conditions
7. Religious observances
8. Participation in varsity athletic competitions or university musical events

Moreover, the student is responsible for providing reasonable advance notification and appropriate documentation for their absence. In the case of planned absences, assignments may be turned in before the due date. If you are a student athlete, it is your responsibility to provide me a copy of your travel/game schedule. You are additionally responsible for making up all work missed during your absence. I am not liable to keep track of your schedule, nor will I try. Please communicate all expected absences and I will give you sufficient time to complete course assignments. If a student disagrees with an instructor's assessment of their absence, the student has the right to appeal the instructor's decision according to the general appeal procedure in PS-48. Please visit: <https://sites01.lsu.edu/wp/policiesprocedures/> for more information regarding these policies. Due to this existing policy after three unexcused absences there will be a 100 point GRADE deduction from the overall final course grade. This practice will continue with each additional absence. In addition, select students who are not present during presentation course meetings will not be able to make-up their deliveries. Non-Speaking students who are not present for speech days will have points deducted from their individual presentation grade. If a student is absent the day they are scheduled to speak and have not made prior arrangements with the instructor, a ZERO grade will be recorded for the presentation portion of the assignment. Due to extreme circumstances students who may miss presentations due may be eligible to make up speech presentations. For example, right before class you broke your feet and have medical documentation of the doctor's visit. Just as with any other job, you would certainly make every effort to contact your co-workers or boss if extenuating circumstances prevented you from meeting an important deadline. The same should be true for this class.

Late Work: Major class assignments are to be turned in by the time class starts on the assigned due date. Any exceptions to this policy are up to the instructor's digression. In other words, if you arrive late to class, the assignment is late (and may not be accepted). In extreme and rare occasions, the course instructor may accept late work, but there will be a substantial point deduction on the given assignment. Any late work submitted may or may not be graded for university accepted absences. You will be responsible for being prepared and submitting the correct documentation! Prior arrangements must be made with the instructor if extenuating circumstances prevent you from meeting an important deadline. If prior arrangements have been made, a penalty will be assessed to any late work. If you miss work due to a university approved absence, you will be responsible for providing documentation to confirm the excused dates and for coordinating make-up work, making every effort to make arrangements before the absence when possible.

General Rules of Thumb:

1. If You Arrive Late for Class – DO NOT walk in during another student's presentation. Please wait outside the room.
2. Tardiness is not expected, respected nor accepted. Excessive tardiness will result in disciplinary action. After a student, has accumulated three tardies each additional tardy will be marked as an absence. "I have noticed that the people who are late are often so much jollier than the people who have to wait for them." -E. V. Lucas.
3. CELL PHONES aren't considered life sources! You were not born with a cell phone therefore; it is NOT pivotal to your existence. Phones are to remain on silent or powered off, anything that vibrates should NOT be in class. If I have to make mention of your cell phone during class, there will be penalties. Phone usage during an exam is considered risky behavior and may result in an immediate zero on the exam in question.

4. Please be mindful of obstacles to your own learning experiences. If there are any “extreme circumstances” to detract from your attending classes, participating in course activities, or meeting deadlines please make attempts to speak to me. However, it is up to my discretion to determine what an extreme circumstance is. #nosadstories
5. If the use of any electronic equipment (laptops, personal amplifiers, etc.) is needed during class please inform your instructor.
6. The Golden Rule still applies outside of grade school! Be aware that on some occasions class discussions will focus on topics or issues that may be considered uncomfortable or controversial by some. Do your part and be mature in handling topics or discussions as they relate to personal growth, academic achievement, and overall social wellness. Students must make every effort to handle these topics and issues in a responsible manner.
7. Be aware that on some occasions class discussions will focus on topics or issues that may be considered uncomfortable or controversial by some. Do your part and be mature in handling topics or discussions as they relate to personal growth, academic achievement, and overall social wellness. Students must make every effort to handle these topics and issues in a responsible manner. You do not have to agree with everyone, but you must be willing to listen. The Golden Rule still applies outside of grade school!

Formatting Guidelines: We will subscribe to the writing guidelines presented by the Modern Language Association. Please consider purchasing a MLA Reference sheet or visiting the LSU Communication across the Curriculum office. Assignments are graded upon the following criteria:

1. All written assignments will be MLA formatted.
2. You are required to use Times New Roman, 12 pt. font and double space all essays. Failure to use the appropriate font will result in grading penalties.
3. Class concepts must guide the discussion. Arguments need to introduce terms/ideas from class notes, text and supplementary materials.
4. Terms and ideas present throughout your work should be structured in a manner that informs the instructor you understand the coursework.
5. You must use first person voice (I or the) which establishes a connection to the opinions and claims present in the submission.
6. All assignments need to respond to the entirety of the instructors learning goals.

ASSIGNMENTS THAT DO NOT REFLECT THESE GUIDELINES WILL BE PENALIZED!

Grades: Final grades will be determined based on points earned in the following assignments. All work must be done during the semester. I reserve the right to make minor adjustments in the total points offered in the service of flexibility and responsiveness to each class’s interests.

Course Assignments:

SPEECHES (50% of overall course grade):	Total 500 Points
Debate Presentations (DEB)	100 points

Group Informative Presentation (INFO)	125 points
Group Persuasive Presentation (PERS)	150 points
Narrative Presentation (NARR)	125 points

A portion of each of the four major speech assignments will be based upon written components (speech outlines, speech evaluations, etc.) in addition to an in-class presentation component.

PARTICIPATION (30% of overall course grade): Total 300 Points

Research Participation Requirement	30 points
5 Quizzes (Online)	150 points (Total of 5 quizzes 30 pts. per quiz)
Course Participation Activities	120 points (Includes Homework, course activities, etc. Total of 12 activities x 10 pts.)

EXAMS (20% of overall course grade): Total 200 Points

Midterm Exam	100 points
Final Exam	100 points

Your final grade assignment will be based on your total score at the end of the semester. Final grades will be assigned as follows:

A+ ... 970-1000 points	A ... 930-969 points	A - ... 900-929 points
B + ... 870-899 points	B ... 830-869 points	B - ... 800-829 points
C + ... 770-799 points	C ... 730-769 points	C - ... 700-729 points
D + ... 670-699 points	D ... 630-669 points	D - ... 600-629 points
F ... 0-599 points

Research Participation Requirements (RPS Credit)

The material you will learn in this course is the product of research. The goal of the research learning requirement is to help you to gain knowledge about the process by which scholars attempt to understand human behavior. All students taking CMST 1061, 2010, 1150, and 2060 must complete a research learning requirement. For each course in which a student is enrolled, he or she must complete 2 research credits. You can fulfill your requirement by:

1. Participating in research studies conducted in the Department of Communication Studies. All studies that last between 0 and 30 minutes will count as one credit. Any study that lasts between 31 and 60 minutes will count as two credits. Each study will specify the number of credits a student can earn for completion. There will be several survey and experimental studies conducted throughout the semester. These studies are held on campus at various times and in various locations or are administered through online survey software. All available studies are approved by the Institutional Review Board at LSU.
2. Participating in an organized departmental function such as debate or public speaking Competition. Only departmental sanctioned events will count toward a student's research learning requirement; thus, no credit will be given for a student attending an outside speaker or performance.

3. Serving as a research assistant for a faculty member in the Department of Communication Studies. The number of units and requirements for those units will be set by the researcher and either accepted or rejected by the student. The research learning requirement is worth 3% of your total grade; you will receive your 3% if you accumulate 2 research credits during the given semester.

Please note that all research learning credits must be completed and allocated by the Tuesday prior to the start of the concentrated study period.

ALL available options to earn credit are posted on an electronic bulletin board located at <https://lsuhumanresearch.sona-systems.com/Default.aspx?ReturnUrl=/>. When you go to this website, you will first have to request an account. Once you have secured an account, you will be able to log in and see the options available to you for your various CMST courses.

Please note that various ways to fulfill your research learning requirement will appear on this bulletin board throughout the semester. You are encouraged to check the system on a regular basis for current credit options that fit your interests as well as your schedule.

It is very important that when you sign-up for a credit option that you attend that option or cancel your sign up. Failure to show up twice during one semester will result in your access to the system being restricted and you being unable to complete your research learning requirement. Valid excuses for failing to cancel a sign up and missing a credit option are the same as those found in LSU Policy Statement 31.

Detailed instructions on how to request an account and to navigate the system are posted on the homepage of the Department of Communication Studies, <http://www.lsu.edu/cmst>. Click on RESOURCES and RESEARCH PARTICIPATION SYSTEM. Scroll down to find the document titled “RPS –Instructions for Students.”

You are encouraged to create an account during the first week of classes so that any problems that arise can be remedied before it is too late. If you have questions about this requirement or the online system that keeps track of credits, please email researchadmin@lsu.edu.

LSU Commitment to Community: The LSU Commitment to Community provides a guiding ethos to the University community. Students are encouraged to exemplify the Commitment to Community in their daily lives. Louisiana State University is an interactive community in which Students, faculty, and staff together strive to pursue truth, advance learning, and uphold the highest standards of performance in an academic and social environment. It is a community that fosters individual development and the creation of bonds that transcend the time spent within its gates.

To demonstrate my pride in LSU, as a member of its community, I will:

- accept responsibility for my actions;
- hold myself and others to the highest standards of academic, personal, and social integrity;
- practice justice, equality, and compassion in human relations;

- respect the dignity of all persons and accept individual differences;
- respect the environment and the rights and property of others and the University;
- contribute positively to the life of the campus and surrounding community; and
- use my LSU experience to be an active citizen in an international and interdependent world.

The continued success of LSU depends on the faithful commitment by each community member to these, our basic principles. (Adopted May 1995)

TITLE IX & Sexual Misconduct Policy: Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 is a comprehensive federal law that prohibits discrimination based on the gender of students and employees of educational institutions that receive federal financial assistance. In accordance with Title IX and other applicable law, Louisiana State University (“LSU”) is committed to providing a learning, working, and living environment that promote integrity, civility, and mutual respect in an environment free of discrimination on the basis of sex and sexual misconduct which includes sex discrimination, sexual harassment, dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking and retaliation. LSU prohibits sex discrimination and sexual misconduct. This policy applies to all persons without regard to sexual orientation, gender identity and/or gender expression. Sex discrimination and sexual misconduct violate an individual’s fundamental rights and personal dignity. LSU considers sex discrimination and sexual misconduct in all of its forms to be serious offenses. This policy has been developed to reaffirm these principles and to provide recourse for individuals whose rights have been violated. This policy establishes a mechanism for determining when rights have been violated in employment, student life, campus support services, LSU programs and/or an academic environment.

HAVE YOU DECLARED YOUR MAJOR OR MINOR?

Business leaders and other professionals recognize the importance of developing communication skills and analysis. Alan Greenspan, for example, stated, “To succeed, you will soon learn, as I did, the importance of a solid foundation in the basics of education – literacy, both verbal and numerical, and communication skills.” We hope this course contributes to your success.

To learn more about communication, you may want to major or minor in the Department of Communication Studies. The program explores how people sustain and change, experience, and make sense of the world through symbolic action. Students develop conceptual skills to analyze written, oral, and visual messages. Students gain practical experience in such areas such as public speaking, group decision-making, performance, and film. Such skills are elemental to careers in business, government, law, social services, and the arts.

A major in Communication Studies requires 36 hours including 12 hours of core classes and 12 hours at the 3000 or 4000 level. A minor requires 15 hours with one core class and 6 hours at the 3000 level or above.

The Department of Communication Studies offers 6 Pathways of Study as guidance for students interested in taking CMST courses. These pathways include lists of courses that can be taken for students interested in the following areas within Communication Studies:

- Public Discourse
- Art and Culture
- Professional Communication
- Communication in Human Relationships
- Visual and Mediated Communication
- Create your Own Pathway

More information is available at www.lsu.edu/cmst or by contacting our undergraduate advisor Mr. Kent Filbel (kfilli@lsu.edu), whose hours are posted at his office, 135 Coates Hall.

LSU Speech and Debate Team: If you are student who may be interested in debate, public speaking, or acting/performance, then the LSU Speech and Debate Team is perfect for you! Speech and debate is an intercollegiate activity where students debate, interpret literature through oral performance, and write and perform their own persuasive and informative speeches! Membership is open to all LSU students and no prior experience is required. Our students travel to compete at other universities and colleges, produce performances and debates on campus, and curate community workshops. Students who’ve been affiliated with speech and debate programs find success from the courtroom to Hollywood! If interested check out our social media at: https://www.facebook.com/LSUSpeechDebate/?ref=br_rs. You can also visit our department website at: https://www.lsu.edu/hss/cmst/student_orgs/Speech_and_Debate_Team/mixon.php.

The Organization for Communication Studies (OCS) is for any undergraduate LSU student interested in Communication Studies. Whether you are a CMST major, minor, or any student interested in Communication Studies, our goal is to create a network of students and faculty united by a shared interest in communication, a desire to better one’s self through interpersonal interactions, and a sense of duty to the CMST Department and local LSU Community.

Members of OCS will have opportunities to meet with representatives from various businesses and institutions to receive career search tips and learn about areas such as hospitality, customer service, recreation and tourism, sales and marketing, and various entry level trainee programs. OCS members will also participate in department events such as hosting the OCS Fall Kickoff, the Public Speaking Competition, and the annual department Awards Banquet.

If you are interested in joining OCS, please email your request to:
