INSTRUCTOR: ELI J. ABAD; 504.256.5413; elijosephabad@gmail.com

OFFICE HOURS: 1 HOUR FOLLOWING EACH SCHEDULED CLASS OR BY APPOINTMENT

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course will introduce students to the litigation process within the American legal system. Emphasis will be placed on examinations of the federal system, the state system, and the fundamental principles of law associated within those systems. Students will study the organization of the courts and learn the roles of individuals that work within the systems. Specific areas of study will include [but are not limited to] pretrial practices, dispute resolution, appellate work. The course will introduce students to the litigation process in state and federal courts. The course examines [but is not limited to] jurisdiction and venue, the persons that are active within the system, civil litigation, criminal litigation, the role of law enforcement within the criminal setting, specialized courts, appellate litigation, the use of technology in the courtroom, the use of social media within the systems, Louisiana politics, and other issues related to the legal system. Additionally, students will participate in courtroom observation and draft a document that relates to concepts in this course.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Students will learn how judges, attorneys, witnesses, and litigation parties interact within our legal system and the significance of their interactions. Also, students will gain an understanding about the structures, organizations, and processes of court systems. Upon the completion of this course, the student will be able to describe the state and federal court system, understand issues related to litigation, identify the role of the persons in the litigation process, and have personal contact with individuals associated with the legal system either in a classroom setting and/or courtroom setting.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

ATTENDANCE: Students are expected to attend all classes. Advanced arrangements should be made with the instructor should there be a need to miss class. A student missing class is responsible for all materials, notes, etc. disseminated in the missed class. Written documentation must be provided immediately upon return to support an excused absence. An attendance record will be kept. Students are required to attend class, be prepared for classroom discussions, and participate in class. Students are responsible to know the LSU attendance policy.

CLASSROOM POLICIES: The use of cell phones will not be tolerated in class. All electronic devices should be turned off and placed under the desk before and during class. The use of a laptop, ipad, or any other electronic device of any sort is not allowed in this class.

Respectful behavior is expected at all times. Disruptive behavior will not be tolerated.

Children are not permitted in the academic classrooms. No food will be allowed in class.

Class begins promptly at 5:00 p.m. The door[s] will be closed by 5:10 p.m. Thereafter, entry into class may be made only during a break. There will be two [2] ten minute breaks during this class unless notified differently. AGAIN, THE USE OF ANY TYPE OF RECORDING

DEVICE IS NOT ALLOWED IN THIS CLASS. The use of a recording device will serve as the basis for immediate removal from the class. Students will not be given any credit/score for work produced in association with recording devices. The instructor reserves the right to have someone stand in for said instructor should extraordinary circumstances exist preventing the instructor's presence in the classroom for a specific class.

CHEATING AND PLAGIARISM: Cheating and Plagiarism [in any form] will not be tolerated. In general, 'cheating' should be construed as depriving [in any form] someone [or obtaining from someone/something] of something of value by deceit, fraud, dishonesty, etc..... In general, 'plagiarism' should be construed as taking [in any form] the ideas of another and passing the ideas off as one's own [without crediting the source]. Penalties for cheating and plagiarism will be in conformity with the LSU standards. Further, students will not be given any credit/score for individual projects that are the products of cheating and/or plagiarism.

SAFETY ISSUES/CAMPUS SAFETY: Items that may be harmful to one's self or others should not be brought to class. LSU believes that your safety is important in the learning process. One should report suspicious activity to the Office of Public Safety/Campus Security.
